HOW TO TRADE IN AND SAVE:

1

Gather Your Eligible Boards:
Round up PCBs from any of your old crane machines; every model board is welcome!

2

Secure Your Crazy Toy Crane:
Place an order for your brand-new Crazy Toy crane through an Andamiro USA distributor.

3

Submit Your Trade-In:
Bring your old crane PCBs to your distributor and complete a simple intake form to initiate trade-in.

4

Receive Your Crazy Toy Credit:
Once your traded crane PCBs are verified, Andamiro will promptly issue your credit through the distributor.

This trade-in program is valid until May 31, 2024, or while supplies last. All trade-ins must be completed by this date. To qualify for credit, participant's board(s) must be shipped to Andamiro USA. Each board traded in is only eligible for a credit toward the purchase of one new Crazy Toy crane. A valid purchase order (PO) number is required for the trade-in to be processed. To qualify for the higher value trade-in credit, multiple crane orders must be placed simultaneously; accumulated orders over time are not eligible.
